No. 73.

BRIEF ITEMS.

Barnes & Martin's natatorium is about completed.

The fall trade of Tucson give promise of being very heavy.

Tucson ought to have a big sanita- rium on modern plans.

Attorney Chas. Blenman is back from a trip to the Mammoth.

The new natatorium will be a great convenience for Tucson.

Tucson continues to be the health resort of southern Arizona.

Guitars and accordions are being sold at cost at the Line City Store.

Mrs. Juan Elias has gone to Hermo- sillo, to put her son in college at that place.

Judge W. H. Barnes, Arizona's first senator, went to Prescott the first of the week on legal business.

Miss Emma Smith, the charming cashier at L. Zeckendorf & Co.'s has returned from a trip to the sea coast.

A. L. Cox has gone to Santa Rosa, California, where he will spend several weeks with relatives and old friends.

There is lot of fine fruit land near Tucson on which productive little orchards could be raised by means of irrigation from wells.

It would be a great improvement to Tucson to take out the Wedge and this made a nice wide street when now there are only two alleys.

The Harry Drachman Shoe Co., have the finest up-to-date shoes in Arizona and theirs is the only exclusive shoe house in southern Arizona.

The natatorium, it is said, will be finished on Saturday, and the water turned on right away thereafter. The Tucson public can begin to get ready to take a swim.—Citizen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Weed and family have returned from Phoenix. They will take a house in this city and expect to make their home here permanently.

G. M. Weeks and L. P. Fearn of the El Plomo mining company, arrived in this city from Sonora yesterday. They will leave tonight for Chicago.—Citizen.

Tucson will soon have the finest opera house in Arizona. The people of the old pueblo are great theatre goers and always patronize liberally all good shows.

It is reported that Editor Louis C. Hughes of the Star, is to be appointed by Governor McCord, president of the university. The Governor owes it to Gov. Hughes, if the latter wants the place.

Engineer J. W. Walker has returned from a trip east where he has been visiting with relatives and friends for several weeks. This is the first time he has visited his old home for sixteen years.

Judge Geo. R. Davis will go to Flor- ence Monday to preside over the hear- ing in the case of the Casa Grande Valley Canal Co., vs. T. H. McLellan et als. Judge Doan having been dis- qualified to act in the case.—Citizen.

They seem to be having an epidemic of marriages in Nogales. Judge J. S. Wood issued on license Saturday to Nogales parties, and today's mail brought applications for three more. Antonio Lopez to Manuela Vasquez; Modesto Amado to Gundalupo Amado; Samuel Elled to Angelina Ruiz.—Citi- zen.

Joseph Hooker, of Cochise county, was in the city on business yesterday at the Land office. He is a son of H. C. Hooker, of Sulphur Spring Valley, the wellknown breeder of fine stock and large cattle owner having at his home ranch the finest and most extensive im- provements in the way of residences, stables, etc., probably in the territory. Tucson Star.

Alexander Seramin came here a few days ago looking for work, and having highly commendatory letters from the N. M. & A. R. R. for which company he worked for some years as telegraph line repairer. He secured work from the Electric Light Co., but night before last developed evidences of insanity. Yesterday he was examined in the Pro- bate Court and ordered committed to the territorial insane asylum.—Star.

Thomas Withers, of Cripple Creek, Colo., late chief of U. S. mineral sur- veys for Colorado, is in the city. He is here in the interest of the Table Moun- tain Mining Company, and to take the management of the company's plant at Table mountain. He is a mining man of excellent ability and says that they are going to work the mines on a larger scale and expect to have quite a town out there in the near future.—Citizen.

Surveyor General Christ has been ad- vised from Washington that 'instruc- tions will be forwarded him by the Gen- eral Land office concerning the surveying of the townsite of Nogales, and he is now daily in expectation of the receipt of such instructions, upon receipt of which the immediate survey of the town may be expected, meanwhile the matter is at a standstill although the order of supervision has been revoked by order of the president.—Star.

Andres Moreno died suddenly yester- day at the Saginaw Camp. He won out there Saturday and yesterday morn- ing started to pitch his tent and while tightening up the ropes, fell over dead. He was brought to the city and a coroner's jury was called at about six o'clock yesterday evening by Justice Scott. An examination of the re- mains was made by them, and they were dismissed, to appear this after- noon at 2 o'clock when the inquest was held. A verdict was returned, the substance of which was, that the de- ceased came to his death from natural causes. The remains were buried this afternoon from P. J. Loneragan's under- taking parlors.—Citizen.

Mr. J. A. Barkley who has been visiting in Phoenix, Tempe and Mesa for the past three weeks returned yester- day, bringing some horses for Neff & Co. He was accompanied by Mrs. Harris and family of the Grossetta ranch who have been visiting with relatives and friends in Phoenix. They were accompanied by John Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam McElheney, brother and sister of Mrs. Harris; Mr. T. C. Barkley, Mrs. C. G. Green and Miss May Bark- ley, father, sister and niece of S. Y. Barkley of the livery firm of Neff & Co. and Mrs. W. B. Green, all of Phoenix. They will picnic in the vicinity of San Xavier Mission tomorrow and a few days later will visit the Agua Caliente and other points around Tucson, after which the most of the party will return to Phoenix. Miss May Barkley will remain and enter the University and Mrs. McElheney will go to Oracle hoping to benefit her failing health.—Citizen.
